

TIMELINE OF

YOUR URBAN FOREST MANAGEMENT PLAN

- Initial meeting of UF project staff with city staff to review the proposal and adjust the timeline and outcomes as needed
- Develop and conduct an online survey of the city's residents' perspectives of urban trees and their management
- Create a public project website that will include a public comment section and marketing to be managed by the City
- Identify the Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability and Gainesville Government Internal Technical Advisory Committee
- Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability Develops Vision Statement and Broad Goals for Urban Forestry Program
- Internal Technical Advisory Committee – initial meeting to introduce the planning process, describe their role and obtain comments from committee members
- Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability – initial meeting to review and comment on DRAFT of the Essential Elements
- Writing of DRAFT Key Objectives – Delphi process and On-line Meetings
- Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability – review and comment on DRAFT Key Objectives
- Internal Technical Advisory Committee – review Essential Elements and Key Objectives
- Develop DRAFT Performance Indicators – Delphi process and On-line Meetings
- Internal Technical Advisory Committee – review and comment on DRAFT Performance Indicators
- Develop full set of Alternatives for Actions – Delphi process and On-line Meetings
- Internal Technical Advisory Committee – review language and identification of priorities for action from full set of Alternatives for Action
- Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability – review 1st DRAFT Plan Outline
- Develop DRAFT Monitoring Plan: Establish monitoring protocols for specific alternatives for actions; and the overall implementation of the plan
- Compile Initial DRAFT Urban Forest Plan
- Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability reviews and comments on the Initial DRAFT Urban Forest Plan
- Internal Technical Advisory Committee reviews and comments on the Initial DRAFT Urban Forest Plan
- Edit Final DRAFT Urban Forest Plan based upon input from the Public Committee on Urban Forest Sustainability, and Internal Technical Working Group
- DRAFT Urban Forest Plan is presented to City Commission