

2002 Albert “Ray” Massey Award Recipients

Duane Diehl for his exceptional efforts to promote youth baseball by coaching the City’s All-Star team for 3 of the past 4 years; and for serving as president of a new baseball booster organization, which raised nearly $12,000 for such things as improvements at City baseball facilities.

Wally Grant for raising funds, coordinating labor, and building a handicapped pier that is used by 9,000 at-risk and handicapped children per year and being instrumental in the construction of a ½ acre